'Don't Accept' Hitler Tells Henlein on Czechs' Offer

Nazi Spokesman Today Says
Fuehrer Would Have Henlein Ask for More and 'You'll Get It'

French Prepare

Marseille Is Placed Under Military Control; Troops Pour Into Maginot Line

Nuremberg, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—A high government spokesman said today that the purpose of Adolf Hitler's admonition to Konrad Henlein on the Czechoslovak government's latest offer of concessions was: "Don't accept; ask for more and you will get it!"

Henlein, leader of the autonomous-demanding Sudeten Germans of Czechoslovakia, came here to confer with his avowed protector, the German Fuehrer, who is presiding over the 10th annual congress of the Nazi Party.

"The chief point at issue," said the government spokesman, "is the Czech scheme for dividing the republic into cantons so small that Germans will be spread over three of them."

"Hitler and the Sudetens say this again begs the whole question. What the Sudetens need and want is a complete section of Czechoslovakia in which they will be masters, where they can profess the Nazi Weltanschauung (political philosophy) and where Germans will be governed by Germans."

"If the Czechs accept this minimum demand the rest will be relatively easy. Speaking purely privately I am under the very definite impression that much easier negotiation between Britain and Germany is going on behind the scenes."

"We are now really hopeful on a peaceful solution."

Nazi sources predicted Henlein would negotiate anew with Czechoslovak government leaders by the end of this week. Disclosing whether a basis satisfactory to the Sudetens can be found and negotiating Hitler to discuss the subject in his speech closing the Nazi Congress next Monday night.

Earlier today Hitler told Germany's conscript labor army that he spades, "being welded in the east, north and south, but especially in the west"—on France's borders—were playing a vital part in defense of the Reich.

"You are fighting for the defense of the Reich and its independence," he told 40,000 labor conscripts as he stood in a pouring rain.

His speech was the climax of the annual labor rally at Zeppelinfeld, Nuremberg, the third day of the annual Nazi party congress.

Most of his audience interpreted his reference to the work of labor battalions "especially in the west" as a public admission that they were perfecting Germany's fortifications facing France. Many considered it an indirect reply to France's calling of reserves into the Maginot line.

"Your spade creates new soil," he declared. "Your spade is being welded for the future and maintaining the Reich."

Before speaking Hitler stood for minutes to review the march of the 40,000 youthful labor conscripts.

Bad weather did not prevent 50,000 spectators from crowding grand stands and bleachers to witness the spectacle.

These developments came as France placed Marseille, her chief Mediterranean port, under military control and poured additional troops into the Maginot line today.

The Europe-wide war between Germany and France, for a possible meeting between Adolf Hitler and the French ambassador to Berlin.

War or peace in Europe, London observers believed, may hang whether Sir Neville Henderson has a chance to discuss the Czechoslovak situation with the French ambassador at the reception for diplomats attending the party congress.

These observers said Hitler had been informed fully concerning the chances of Britain's fighting against the Reich to defend Czechoslovakia if he is attacked.

In the general feeling in German circles was that Hitler would wait the remainder of this year for the Czechoslovak government to present a peace plan acceptable to the Sudeten Germans.

Both France and Germany stepped a rigorous anti-espionage campaign on top of their military operations along the border, carefully watching all travelers.

The Central European crisis almost completely overshadowed the Chinese reports in Shanghai that the Chinese had reversed the tide of battle in the Yangtze Valley, penetrating Japanese lines west of Juchang, south of the river, and forcing the invaders to retreat.

Spain, forest fires on the island of De Los Caballeros were reported to be driving troops from the Ebro river positions on the Ebro river.

F.D.R. Says Power Shortage Serious Threat to Nation in Event of War

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today the possibility of an electric power shortage in the event of war constitutes "a serious threat to the national security."

This statement was made in letters designating members of a special committee Mr. Roosevelt named to seek "definite ways and means" of providing emergency power facilities.

The president named the following as members of the investigating body:

Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war; Frederic A. Delano, of the national resources committee; Basil Manly, of the federal power commission; Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior, and a member of the national power committee; Charles Edison, assistant secretary of the navy, and William O. Douglas of the securities commission.

In letters to members of the committee, the president said that reports to him regarding the supply of electric power in event of a national emergency "have given me much concern."

The reports were made by the war department and the federal power commission in response to a request by the chief executive last March.

"These studies," Mr. Roosevelt wrote, "have disclosed a shortage of power to meet the needs of the nation's industry in the event of war such as constitute a serious threat to the national security."

Miami Girl Faces Ratings for Clerk Manslaughter in Of Welfare Board Covadonga Death Made Public Here

Count, Reared to Rule Spanish People, Not Considered Heir to Throne by Insurgent Authorities

MILDRED GAYDON

Miami, Fla., Sept. 7 (AP)—The Count of Covadonga, born a Crown Prince and reared to rule the Spanish people, lay dead today thousands of miles from his native land after a tragic nocturnal automobile ride with a night club cigarette girl.

Funeral arrangements were uncertain for the count, who renounced his claim to the throne abdicated by his father, Alfonso 12th. Covadonga's secretary said a cablegram from the former king in Rome was so indefinite he had asked for further instructions.

A charge of manslaughter through negligence faced the girl, Miss Mildred Gaydon, who was driving her old-model car when it crashed into a telephone pole. She escaped with slight bruises but the count suffered cuts of the head, a broken leg and a possible fractured skull. His physician attributed death to traumatic shock.

No Political Significance

Zaragoza, Spain, Sept. 7 (AP)—The death of the Count of Covadonga, eldest son of former King Alfonso, had no political significance, said insurgents here today.

The count's younger brother, Juan, has been regarded as the logical candidate for the throne in the event of a restoration of the monarchy, since the count renounced his rights.

U. S. Prepares Bill Government Figures Against Raskob and du Pont Placed at $2,100,000 Today

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—The government prepared a $2,100,000 bill for back income taxes and interest for John D. Raskob and Pierre S. du Pont today.

The sum was figured by the Treasury as the amount due under a decision by the board of tax appeals on June 30 that certain securities transactions between the two financiers were made to escape tax liability on their 1929 incomes.

The Treasury estimated that Raskob, who managed Alfred E. Smith's presidential campaign in 1928, owed $888,255 taxes, and du Pont, chairman of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company, owed $559,365. Interest on the combined amounts was figured at $261,000.

Originally the government sought to collect $1,026,340 from Raskob and $617,315 from du Pont.

New Legion Post To Be Formed in Rosendale Section

County Commander Maynard and County Adjutant Inspect Records, Applications of New Post

Following the efforts made since last February by a group of progressive veterans in Rosendale area, plans have now been definitely made to complete the organization work of the newly formed Rosendale-Tilston Post of the American Legion.

The necessary number required to complete application for a charter was procured some time ago and many other veterans have since indicated a willingness to sign up as members of the charter group.

The County Commander William H. Maynard and County Adjutant Walter A. Clark of Highland paid a visit to Rosendale last Thursday when they inspected the records and application for charter that will be sent to state headquarters for further study and approval.

Following the local inspection of records a meeting will shortly be called at which time officers will be elected for the newly organized Rosendale-Tilston Post. Further details will be announced as soon as a definite date is set by the organization committee.

While in next few days the necessary reports and organization paper work is being completed any veteran in the vicinity of Rosendale Township, who desires to sign up with Rosendale-Tilston Post can procure prompt information by phoning Rosendale 1-1-3 and a member of the organization committee near him will call with application for membership.

The Rosendale-Tilston Post group is making every effort to sign up a total of 25 veterans and thus achieve also not only a progressive American Legion Post in this area but also to reach their quota before October 1.

Many of the former Ulster County Commanders of the Legion and others locally and nationally, made other attempts to establish a Post in Rosendale since the monument to Rosendale veterans was erected by a small group of women in what was then the newly organized Woman's Club.

The new Rosendale-Tilston Post that will soon officially make its debut represents the quiet, persistent efforts of local veterans to carry on to completion, a plan mapped out that has taken many years to accomplish. With the further addition later of an auxiliary and a Sons of American Legion group, the local community will take the most progressive step forward, it has accomplished since its former industries were in its glory.

McCarran Appears Winner

Reno, Nev., Sept. 7 (AP)—Senator Pat McCarran, who opposed President Roosevelt's Supreme Court and government reorganization proposals, appeared today to have secured the Democratic nomination by an overwhelming majority from two avowed New Deal backers. With an estimated 69 per cent of the vote in yesterday's primary counted when the tally was stopped until late in the day, 199 of Nevada's 262 precincts gave McCarran 11,127 votes, Albert Hilliard, Reno attorney, 3,393, and Dr. John Warden, state health board secretary, 551.

Adults Are Blamed

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—Failure of adults to provide for their families was listed by the state probation division today as a main cause for an increase in the number of state "probationers."

In its annual report, the division also pointed to a "prevalence of thievery among delinquent children" as adding an increase of 42 persons on probation in 1937 over the previous year. In all, 45,444 persons were on probation in the state during all or part of 1937, the division reported.

Davey Defies Social Security Board to Cut Ohio's Pensions

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—Governor Martin L. Davey, laying responsibility for any major shortcomings in Ohio's administration of old age pensions on the Social Security Board itself, defied the board today to cut off federal pension grants.

"Frankly, I do not believe you dare deprive these aged citizens of one-half their scant living to support your political maneuver," Davey said in a letter to A. J. Altmeier, board chairman. "It would be an act of cruel tyranny which not even a political farce could justify."

The board opened a hearing yesterday on whether to suspend federal grants to Ohio's old age assistance program because of allegations the state administration did not meet federal requirements.

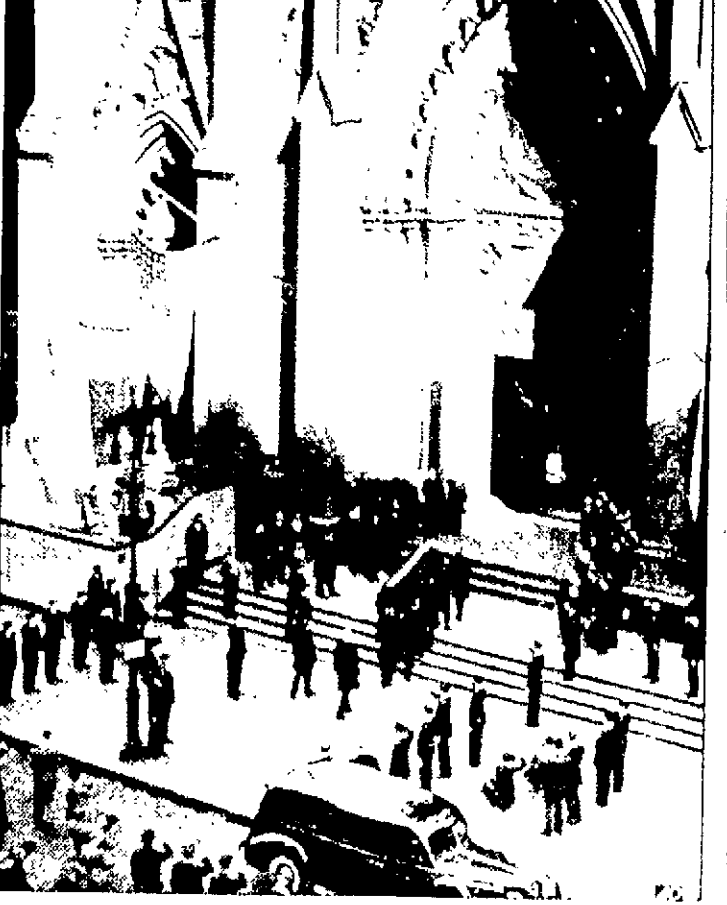

Ohio officials had been requested to attend, but none was present. Nevertheless, the board proceeded with its own witnesses.

Cardinal's Body at Cathedral

As churchmen and saluting uniformed policemen look on solemnly, the body of Patrick Cardinal Hayes is slowly borne up the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York city after its return from his summer home near Montefiore, N. Y., where the Cardinal recently died in his sleep. It was from these same steps that the Cardinal for many years reviewed St. Patrick's Day parades and blessed Easter worshippers.

Philip Tyler Drowns At Schultz Brickyard

East Kingston, Negro, 47, Was on Way to Deliver Message to Man on Texaco Tanker at 10:30 P. M. Tuesday

Philip Tyler, 47, a negro of East Kingston, was drowned in the Hudson river about 10:30 Tuesday evening at the dock at the Schultz Brickyard on North street, just inside the city limits. It was an hour later before the body was recovered. Tyler is survived by a wife and four children.

An investigation of the drowning was made by Officer Hoodell and Sammons of the police department. According to the police report Tyler had gone to the dock where the Texas Oil Company tanker No. 327 was moored, to deliver a message to Andrew Tyndall, 19 New street, Bayonne, N. J., who was aboard the tanker. Tyler either slipped or fell from the dock as he attempted to grasp hold of the ladder on the side of the tanker. The crew aboard the tanker heard the splash and rushed to the side of the tanker but did not see Tyler who had evidently struck his head and his body did not rise to the surface.

Word was sent to the sheriff's office and Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg and Winne, the crew of the emergency truck of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation and the two police officers were rushed to the dock.

Grappling for the body was started but it was not until about an hour later when the body was finally brought to the surface by Nicholas P. Radenberg, an employee of the Central Hudson.

Deputy Sheriff Winne said that there was a laceration across Tyler's forehead which led the investigators to believe that he had struck his head in falling, stunning him.

Coroner Norvin R. Lasher of Saugerties was called and turned the body over to Undertaker James V. Halloran of lower Broadway.

John W. Cullum, 121 Pine Grove avenue.

Ernest Warncke, 509 First avenue.

Frank P. Kolls, 74 Foxhall avenue.

Increase Noted In Registrations At City Schools

Superintendent Reports 4,935 Pupils Enrolled on Opening of Term; Expects More During Week

The total registration of pupils in the city's schools for the first day of the fall term is slightly higher than last year, according to Superintendent B. C. Van Ingen. Last year at the opening day the registration was 4,912, while on Tuesday the total registration was 4,935, which included the high school, the Myron J. Michael school and the grammar schools.

Superintendent Van Ingen said this morning, that undoubtedly during the remainder of the week the total registration for the first day at the high school on Tuesday was 2,223, which included the 18-20 man class who will be transferred to the Myron J. Michael school. The registration in the grammar schools was 2,712, which included the eighth grade pupils who will later be transferred to the Michael School.

The total registration for the three years follows: 1936-1,955 pupils; 1937-1,912 pupils; this year, 1,935 pupils.

The registration in the grammar schools for the first day was slightly under that of 1937 when 2,935 pupils were registered as compared with 2,912 pupils on Tuesday.

Big Difference

Roosevelt's Fight to Unseat Tydings Harder Than in Two Southern States

Baltimore, Sept. 7 (AP)—There is one big difference between President Roosevelt's effort to oust Senator Millard E. Tydings and his fight for "liberal" candidates in Georgia and South Carolina.

In those two southern states Democratic nomination is equivalent to election. Maryland, however, is a two-party state. Its governor, elected four years ago, is a Republican.

Thus the Republicans are hoping the primary contest between Tydings and Rep. David J. Lewis, White House choice, will split Maryland Democrats so thoroughly that many of the loser's followers will vote Republican in November.

The Republicans have a senatorial contest of their own in next Monday's primary. The candidates are Oscar Leser, who quit a Baltimore judgeship to make the race, and Glen Tatt, state chairman of the party from 1914 to 1934.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—The position of the Treasury on September 2: Receipts, $17,593,956.60; expenditures, $22,983,035.05; net balance, $2,217,349.63. Including $1,629,310.819.58 working balance; customs receipts for the month, $2,708,275.58; receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $911,084,018.88; expenditures, $1,549,450,923.16, including $478,754.456.49 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $768,367,006.28; gross debt, $27,628,266,929.80, a decrease of $124,875.11 below the previous day; gold assets, $12,173,662,711.31.

Scheuplein's Inn Destroyed by Fire

Scheuplein's Inn in the Wind-ing Hills near Montgomery, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning with a loss exceeding $75,000. Firemen from Montgomery and Middletown fought the flames.

Twenty-five guests in the hotel section, roused from sleep with the first sign of fire, safely made their way or were escorted to the spacious grounds surrounding the blazing structure.

Many of the terrified guests fled from the building scantily clad in their night clothes. A number, however, managed to hustle into their coats and driving robes and they watched, shivering, the fire during the chilly morning hours. The fire was believed caused by defective electric wiring.

THE JOINERS

News of interest to members of fraternal societies.

There will be a regular meeting of the Kingston Lodge, No. 1, O. O. F., this evening at 7 o'clock.

Clinton Chapter, No. 445, O. E. S., will resume its meetings after the summer vacation, Friday evening, The Rev. William A. Grier, pastor of the Church of the Holy Cross, will be the guest speaker of the evening. All members of the Eastern Star and their night clothes. A number, however, managed to hustle into their coats and driving robes and they watched, shivering, the fire during the chilly morning hours. The fire was believed caused by defective electric wiring.

Information Not Properly Drawn In Roach Case

The question of whether Bernard V. Roach of Stuyvesant street was intoxicated the night he was driving a car on Broadway, which was in collision with another car, was not answered in police court today for the motion made by his attorney, Chris. J. Flanagan, to dismiss the information on the ground that it was not properly drawn was granted by Judge Matthew V. Cahill.

Mr. Roach was arrested by Officer Urban Healey following the crash on Broadway in which the car owned by Saugerties was driving, was struck in the rear by the Roach car. The police arrived on the scene after the crash.

The case came up for trial today in city court when Attorney Flanagan appeared for the district attorney's office and Attorney Flanagan for Roach.

Attorney Flanagan submitted a long and carefully prepared motion in which were cited a number of cases which had been thrown out of court on the ground of being improperly drawn. Attorney Flanagan contended that the Roach information also was defective in that there was not attached to the information the sworn statements of Esmond and Ruth Gifford.

The motion was opposed by Attorney Stang who contended that the information was properly drawn.

Judge Cahill in dismissing the information said that he did not draw up the laws and could only follow the precedent laid down in similar cases by higher courts. He said there was no question but the police had acted in good faith and had made the arrest in good faith, but the fact that the information was drawn in good faith did not mean that it had been legally drawn.

Judge Cahill upheld Attorney Flanagan's contention that the information was insufficient in that there was not attached to it the sworn statements of the Giffords.

Foreign Markets Generally Stronger

Although averages of all classes of stocks on the New York Exchange showed a loss yesterday in a low turnover—$2,699,999—the London market went ahead for the best rally since July 20 and foreign markets generally were stronger as optimism developed over the central Europe situation, with the Czech government making a new offer to the Sudeten Germans. Paris market was steady in light volume. Sterling fell to a new low of $4.51 1/2, but closed slightly higher.

On the New York Exchange industrial stocks as measured by the Dow-Jones averages closed at 141.47, off 1.61 points for the day; rails lost 6.50, down to 27.42; utilities were off 0.17, to 19.12. Bonds generally were below their previous close.

There was a sudden drop in commodities. Wheat dropped as much as 2 1/2 cents at Chicago; cotton was off 12 to 15 points in New York; rubber down 10 to 18 points; hides 13 to 16; cocoa tended lower.

With world wheat prices declining both the U. S. and Canada face large losses on account of their wheat subsidy programs. Both are trying to dispose of large surpluses abroad by buying wheat above world prices and taking a loss. Importers apparently see the policy working in their favor and are making reduced purchases. So far it is estimated that Canada has lost up to $70,000,000 on its program. In the United States the total of purchases by the government so far is around 6,000,000 bushels of this amount but 1,849,597 bushels have been sold for export. The U. S. had hoped to sell 100,000,000 bushels abroad. If the present trend continues the government will be left with a huge accumulation of grain on its hands.

It is said that a definite improvement in sentiment prevails in the steel market. Prospects now are that in the Chicago area the rate of output will be well above 100 per cent of capacity for the first time since November last year. The rate generally for this week, with the holiday cutting in, is scheduled at 23 per cent of capacity. This is a less decline from the previous week than was noted in the same week last year.

New York Telephone Co. had a stock loss of 1.87 in August as against a gain of 2.115 in August 1937. For the first seven months of this year the T. & T. had a gain of 40,500 telephones, comparing with a gain of 36,500 in the same period last year.

W. T. Grant Co. report a sales gain of 0.8 per cent in August as compared with August last year. July showed a decrease of 9.7 per cent; for the first eight months of this year and the decrease was 6.1 per cent as compared with the first eight months of 1937. Melville shoe sales for four weeks ended August 27 were 9.3 per cent below the same period in 1937.

Norwalk Tire & Rubber Co. declared $5.25 preferred stock, clearing up arrears; preceding payment was $1.75 on August 1st. J. C. Penney ordered 75 cents on common, same as last year. Celanese Corp. pays $2 on seven per cent participating preferred and regular quarterly of $1.75 on seven per cent preferred.

Texas Power and Light, subsidiary of American Power & Light, facing federal competition, has offered to sell at cost to the Lower Colorado River Authority a sizeable portion of its property and business.

With two former proposals to settle the problem of the proposed purchase of Commonwealth & Southern properties by the TVA rejected by Director Lilienthal, President Wilkie of the company has now made a third proposal. He now suggests that the Securities and Exchange Commission determine the price to be paid by the government agency for the Commonwealth & Southern properties in the TVA area. The new plan for settling the long drawn out negotiations, involving private utility properties valued at an estimated $150,000,000, was disclosed in a letter written by Mr. Wilkie to Chattanooga city officials.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By CLAUDE E. JAGGER

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—A wave of buying stirred the stock market out its rut today and lifted many shares for gains of fractions to more than a point after prices had drifted most of the session.

The action, interrupting a period of extreme quiet, seemed to have been touched off by reports on financial news tickers leading to hopes of settlement of the Czechoslovak-German controversy.

Trading was so heavy on the upturn, the stock ticker dropped a little behind the market. Transactions ran at the rate of about $60,000,000 for the full session.

Sobel Testifies That Hines Gave $11,000 to Fund

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—Henry Sobel, campaign manager for former District Attorney William Copeland Dodge in the bitter 1933 election, today testified in the conspiracy trial of James J. Hines, that the veteran Tammany district leader contributed $11,000 to Dodge's campaign fund.

Former Dutch Schultz mobsters have testified they gave Hines as much as $100,000 for the political "front" for the police racket, a total of $300,000 in "numbers money" to promote Dodge's campaign.

Rev. Mr. Shew Died Saturday

The Rev. Emmett Shew, a former resident of Kingston, died on Saturday at Grand Gorge. Funeral services were held in the Grand Gorge M. E. Church on Monday afternoon with burial in the Evergreen cemetery at Jefferson.

The Rev. Mr. Shew, who had been in failing health for the past year, succumbed to heart disease. He was born in Gilboa, December 22, 1863, the son of James H. and Eliza (Van Deusen) Shew. On March 24, 1886, he was married to Miss Ida Mae Simonsen.

He was graduated from Drew Theological Seminary and received his first appointment in the ministry in 1893 at East Durham. He also served at Lexington, Charlotteville, Bellville, Modena, White Lake, Hyde Park, the First Church at Beacon, and Lakeville, Conn. He retired from the ministry at Coxsack after 45 years of service. The Rev. Mr. Shew resided in Kingston for eight years and had lived in Grand Gorge since April. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Surviving are his wife, one son, Raymond Shew of Grand Gorge; four sisters, Mrs. Charles P. Champlin of Jefferson, Mrs. C. Beggs of South Gilboa, Mrs. John Scur of South Gilboa and Mrs. W. R. Reed of Oscaloosa, Iowa; also several nieces and nephews.

Fisherman Found Ill at Reservoir

Winfield Moore of Jamaica, L. I., associated with the Amalgamated Gas Co., and for three weeks, with his wife, occupying one of the Stephen Huben bungalows at Rosendale, was taken with a heart attack Tuesday evening at the conclusion of a fishing trip to the Ashokan reservoir.

Mr. Moore was found about dusk by Albert and Richard Brueckner, proprietors of the Dam Side Rest, located on the South Boulevard near West Hurley. The two men, returning from fishing, found Moore lying along the path about half way between the shore of the reservoir and the road. They took him to their filling station and called Dr. Mortimer B. Downer. The latter after rendering first-aid treatment ordered the man taken to the hospital and he was brought to the Kingston Hospital by Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg and Winne of the sheriff's office. At the hospital this forenoon Mr. Moore was reported to be in an apparently serious condition.

Mr. Moore is an ardent fisherman and is said to have indulged in his favorite sport almost every day during his stay in the country. He left his Rosendale home about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and drove to the reservoir, accompanied by Joseph Huben, a nephew of Stephen Huben. He appeared to be in good health and spirits when he left his home and, so far as is known, had not complained of feeling otherwise than well during his stay at Rosendale. The officers called to investigate the case, found several fine bass lying in the boat which he had been using.

Pays $10 Fine
Marshall Othaus of 360 Main street, Hackensack, was arrested Tuesday by State Troopers Reilly and Stickles on a charge of reckless driving. The defendant was charged with passing cars on the brow of a hill. Before Justice Charles H. Bennett at Saugerties a $10 fine was imposed.

Sentenced to 30 Days
Joseph Kregel, 43, of Saugerties, RD 2, was committed to the county jail Tuesday to serve a 30-day sentence imposed by Justice Charles H. Bennett of Saugerties. Kregel was arrested by Sergeant Cunningham and Trooper Keefe on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Local Death Record

Funeral services were held for William Ostrander yesterday at 2 p. m. from the family residence in the town of Gardiner. Mr. Ostrander was born in the town of Shawangunk in 1873. All of his life was spent there and in Gardiner. He is survived by two brothers, John and Ivan Ostrander, both of Gardiner, and by two sisters, Mrs. M. E. Pratt of Stone Ridge and Mrs. Edith Gladly of Richmond Hill. Burial was in the New Paltz Rural cemetery.

Daniel D. Hicks died at his home, 46 Van Buren street this morning. The funeral will be held from his late residence, Friday at 2 p. m. Surviving are his wife, formerly Katie M. Bell; two sons, Raymond M., of South Orange, N. J., and Harold B. Hicks, of Pittsfield, Mass.; three grandsons, Raymond, Jr., David Scott and John P. Hicks; one brother, Seymour Hicks of Kingston; one sister, Clara H. Marlin of Kingston. He was a member of Charles DeWitt Council, 91, Jr. O. U. A. M. For 45 years Mr. Hicks was identified with the shoe business, 33 years of that time having been spent with Clyde Crosby, Broadway dealer.

Kerhonkson Fire Destroys Garage

The Tompkins Garage and Sunoco gas station just beyond the village of Kerhonkson was destroyed by fire about 10 o'clock this morning. The fire was discovered while Mr. Tompkins was at work on a car in the repair shop because of the fact that there was no available supply of water closer than the creek. Kerhonkson Fire Department, which was summoned was unable to bring the flames under control. Built of concrete blocks the interior was a mass of flames when the firemen arrived and before a stream could be put on the building it was beyond control. How the fire started was not ascertained. The building was approximately 40 by 40 and was used as a repair shop and gas station by Claude Tompkins.

State Trooper Nolan was notified of the fire and took charge of traffic. The garage was located on the former Webster Wynkoop property on the Kingston Ellenville road just west of the village of Kerhonkson.

Daylight Saving Ends September 25

Daylight saving time will end at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, September 25, when standard time will be resumed. Under the provisions of an ordinance adopted by the Common Council during the World War daylight saving time automatically goes into effect each summer in Kingston, and remains in effect until the last Sunday in September of each year.

Renovating Court Room

The court room is being prepared for the opening of county court next Monday when the September trial term will be convened by County Judge Frederick G. Traver. Several of the ceiling panels, which have become loosened because of leaks in the slate roof over the court room are being repaired preparatory to the opening of the fall court season.

Held for Parole Violation

Eugene Cashdollar, 16, of Woodstock, on parole from the New York State School at Warwick, was taken into custody at Woodstock last night by Deputy Sheriff Reilly and held at the Ulster county jail on a charge of violation of parole. He had been working on a farm at Lomontville since his parole.

New Corporation To Operate Looms

Lane Looms, Inc., has filed a certificate of incorporation with the State Department and also with the county clerk. The corporation is formed according to the incorporation papers for the purpose of design, manufacture and sale of fabrics, etc., to manufacture and sell garments of cloth of any description for wearing apparel and for interior decorating.

The capital stock of the corporation is $10,000, consisting of 100 shares of a par value of $100. All shares are common and the principal office of the corporation is located at Richmond Park, town of Ulster.

Personal Finance Company Reports Business Gaining

Delano R. Ellis, manager of the Personal Finance Co., 319 Wall street, together with Frederick Taylor and Donald Smith, local representatives, attended a district meeting and banquet of the Personal Finance Co. at the Hotel Ten Eyck in Albany last Friday afternoon and evening.

Present at the meeting were managers and representatives of the various offices throughout the state. Reports given by the different managers proved business to be on the upward trend throughout the state, with the company resources in excellent condition. A new type loan to be known as the personal security loan, will be offered by the Personal Finance Co.

Trinity M. E. Services

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Fred H. Deming returned Tuesday from their vacation at Lake Quincey in the Berkshires. During their absence the interior of the parsonage has been redecorated and a new steam heat furnace installed. Services at Trinity M. E. Church will be resumed Thursday evening, beginning with the mid-week service.

Koungasian Fined

Aaron Matthew Koungasian of 1093 Decatur avenue, Teaneck, N. J., was charged by State Troopers Reilly and Stickles with reckless driving Monday when the defendant was arrested for cutting out of line and passing cars on a hill on route 9-W. A $10 fine was imposed by Justice Charles H. Bennett on a plea of guilty.

Poughkeepsie Police Begin Investigation of Robbery

Joining at the Poughkeepsie Country Club annual clambake started at Red Oaks mill Sunday.

August 28, were the subject of a sweeping investigation Tuesday, says the Poughkeepsie Star, as the surprising aftermath of solution of one of Poughkeepsie's sensational sidewalk hold-up cases of the past few weeks. Two men, named by authorities as James Canora, 25, machinist of 14 Mt. Carmel Place, and his first cousin and brother-in-law, Frank Canora, 24, coal man of 62 North Bridge street, were being held by police today on first degree robbery charges, having confessed, authorities said, to the assault-robbery of Mrs. Dora Deimling, 43, of 105 Cannon street and her companion, Malcolm Dullais, of Poughkeepsie.

The loot which James Canora gambled setup provided for the seizure after a battle with Mrs. Deimling—and later divided with club clambake, authorities asserted after the two defendants had been arrested and had made full confession.

700 Agents on List

Washington, Sept. 7 (AP). The national munitions control board listed 700 agents today in the first group of persons or organizations presumed to come under a new law requiring registration of all agents of foreign governments. The act defines as foreign agents all persons, except diplomatic or consular officers and persons engaged in bona fide trade or commerce, other than publicity.

$13,500,000,000 OF YOUR MONEY

It is estimated that government—federal, state and national—will levy taxes to the tune of $13,500,000,000 this year.

Just one-ninth of that sum will be raised through income taxes. The gigantic balance will be raised through indirect taxes which represent part of the cost of a pair of shoes, a ticket to a show, rent, groceries and every other necessity and luxury of life.

The great bulk of indirect taxes are paid by persons of small and moderate means. A man with a thousand dollars a year eats as much as a man with fifty thousand. And the hidden tax burden is obviously of infinitely greater importance to him.

Here is the answer to those who think the tax problem is a wealthy man's problem, which doesn't touch the poor. There isn't a man, woman or child in this country who doesn't pay taxes—and heavy taxes, to boot. And the worst sufferer from extravagant government is that ordinary citizen who thinks he is tax-free because he pays no direct levies.

INTERNATIONAL SHIRTS

To Americans who recall the way our government used to handle Mexican irregularities, from the time when President Diaz fled and through the troublesome revolutionary years that followed, present procedure at Washington seems mild. By diplomatic pressure we deposed and exiled presidents. When property was confiscated we sent armies across the border. Our dealings with Huerta, Villa and the rest of the trouble-makers make interesting reading today.

Now that is all changed. We remonstrate diplomatically, and we bring financial pressure to bear, but we do not invade Mexico nor make reprisals. It is a new age, in which the Americas have to hang together under a more liberal but more inclusive Monroe Doctrine, in a world where foreign perils grow greater.

We Americans, too, recovered now from the brainstorm that came with the Spanish war, really regard the Latin-Americans as neighbors, and want to be friends. We are willing to lean over backward to be fair to them. But we also insist, with Anglo-Saxon stubbornness, that they be fair with us. The Mexican government, in its present confusion, is not being fair.

It is very important to keep this controversy between governments from growing into another popular quarrel. Americans and Mexicans must get along together. Publicly and privately we must "keep our shirts on."

FRENCH RIDE TANDEM

The form of the new French holiday sport should interest Americans. It is done mainly on bicycles. There has been a great renaissance of this form of locomotion, particularly of the tandem bicycle familiar to the fathers of boys and girls now riding wheels in this country. For the first time young French men and girls ride together, and this is the way they do it, because they cannot afford automobiles.

"Thousands of brand new machines are on the road and scorches burn up the boulevards at 15 miles an hour," writes a correspondent. "Department stores display elegant models in all price ranges, with facilities for payment," meaning they can be bought for a few francs a month. In short, as regards the bicycle, France is where America was 30 or 40 years ago. As regards vacations, it is catching up and in some ways has passed us. France is playing. Indeed, right now it seems to be playing too much for its own good.

There must be more work done if France is to compete with its neighbors. This is particularly true with regard to German competition. France at present needs to work more hours a week, as its premier demands. But it could do that, and the boys and girls could still have a good time in the American way.

THE AIR RACES

By this time the news has been printed of the winners of the great speed, long distance and endurance races by the airplanes centering their activities in Cleveland. Most of the thrills are over.

The solid facts that remain after the excitement has blown off are the improvements in aviation in general in the year gone by. The races focus attention for a few days. But the work goes on throughout the year. The growth in possibility of accomplishment since the first time the races were held in Cleveland a few years ago is immeasurable.

The Hopi Indians in Arizona have been dancing again, and having their usual success with the rain-gods. They should try that on the "dust bowl" in the next drought.

A police judge in Cleveland has ordered the junking of more than 300 old cars involved in wrecks. That's as good a way as any to get the jumpy jalopies off the road.

A fellow complains that after an enormous lot of work, he merely catches up to where he was before. So do the earth and the solar system.

Speaking of Father Divine and his angels—with Heaven on one side of the Hudson and Utopia on the other, all should be well.

The most curious and incredible facts in contemporary life are the things women call hats.

Nazi civilians don't think militarism is so hot, when they're taken off their jobs and drafted to help build fortifications.

The British lion is swishing his tail again, and Hitler better look a little out.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By James W. Barton, M.D.

Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act.

Eye specialists (oculists) tell us that what is commonly called eyestrain may be due to other conditions than overuse of the eyes or reading in a poor light. Thus Dr. John V. Y. Nichols, Montreal, states in the Canadian Medical Association Journal that eyestrain proper means manifestations in the eyeball itself, in the ability to see, and in the body as a whole. Disturbances due to reading too much or reading in a poor light are relieved by removing these irritating conditions, whereas symptoms affecting the eyeball, seeing ability, and the general health give rise to much more disturbance.

The ocular or eyeball symptoms are dull heaviness over the eyes, itchy and burning sensations in the margins of the lids, and sometimes redness of the eyeball.

The visual or "seeing" symptoms are more or less prolonged attacks of blurred vision. There may be periods of double vision (seeing two objects instead of one).

Among the systemic symptoms, due to a disturbance which interferes with the eyes working together properly, are faintness and dizziness. Certain forms of sea and train-sickness belong to this group. Lack of attention and drowsiness in school children may be a feature, also such vague symptoms as lack of appetite and stomach disturbance must be included in this group. Migraine (one-sided headache) may be classed here also.

Dr. Nichols states that all these systemic symptoms are due to an "imbalance" of the muscles which control or move the eyeball and can be corrected if treatment of this muscle imbalance is properly carried out. This treatment may require considerable time and perhaps much home work on the part of the patient, but the results are very satisfactory.

Further, just as the oculist advises the patient to rid himself of any infection present—teeth, tonsils, sinuses—before having the eyes tested for glasses, so it is suggested that as temporary muscle imbalances are not uncommon after influenza or other depressing ailments, a reasonable time should be allowed for the condition to correct itself before beginning any treatment.

"Treatment, based on the above principles, carried out with patience and persistence, will be found very successful."

Health Booklets Available

Eight helpful health booklets by Dr. Barton are now available for readers of the Kingston Daily Freeman. They are: Eating Your Way to Health; Why Worry About Your Heart? Neurosis; The Common Cold; Overweight and Underweight; Allergy or Sensitivity to Various Foods and Other Substances; Scourge (gonorrhea and syphilis); and How is Your Blood Pressure? These booklets may be obtained by sending ten cents for each one desired to The Bell Library, 247 West 43rd street, New York City, mentioning the name of the Kingston Daily Freeman.

THE CLOVER MOON

By MAX SALTMARSH

The Characters
 Hugo Stern, handsome author, living on the French Riviera.
 Archie Lumsden, my friend, his friend.
 Ben Geiss, head of a murder conspiracy.
 Otilie Willis, American heiress.

Yesterday: Venner tells Stahl to leave me alone. Hugo and Otilie quarrel, when he finds her coquetting with Geiss.

Chapter 27

Posing For Geiss

EVENING found us on the Carlton terrace, shaking hands with Mr. Virgoe Willis.

He was alone, a fact on which he commented as soon as he had settled us with our drinks. "I surely can't think what's keeping Otilie," he observed. "Half past four she went out, and two hours is certainly long enough to get your picture made, when it's only a sketch."

Hugo stiffened in his chair. "Picture?" he echoed sharply, and the old man nodded.

"This Mr. Geiss was all set on making a picture of Otilie; nothing would suit him but that she should sit for him."

"Do you mean," asked Hugo slowly, "that Miss Willis has gone alone to Geiss's villa?"

The old man raised his eyebrows. "Is there any reason," he asked quietly, "why my niece should not go alone to this individual's studio?"

"Every reason in the world," Hugo answered bluntly. "And I know Geiss."

Virgoe Willis frowned, pursing his lips. "She's certainly late," he admitted, "but she's not alone. Cassandra Chubb is with her, and Cassandra, gentlemen, is a woman in a million. She was nurse to my niece as little girls."

"That is right, then," I said, considerably relieved, but Hugo still frowned.

"I don't want to disturb you unduly, sir," he said, "but have I your permission to go round to the villa and bring your niece back?"

A second time the old man raised his eyebrows; then slowly he nodded.

"I don't entirely grasp the cause of your concern for my niece, but I believe in the disinterestedness of my motives. Go by all means."

Hugo got to his feet, and together we made our way toward the rug door.

Dark was falling, and the little street, close-faded in its edging of trees, was dim and shadowy.

We halted before the iron gate of number 57. I was conscious of a goose-flesh sensation up my spine, coupled with a shiver that ran over me like a cold wave. There was something sinister in the very air of the scene, so still, so silent, and yet so near the very heart and hub of the town; and when the peep-hole shutter slid aside at our ring and I saw the pale face of the manservant surveying us through it, it seemed to me that he was the very incarnation of evil.

He started perceptibly as he recognized me. "Monsieur does not recognize me," he said, "but I have never had time to put a question, and the shutter was closed."

We stood there in the deserted road staring at each other. What to I couldn't imagine.

'Quiet As A Graveyard'

AND then, just as hope died, came the most welcome interruption. On the other side of the gate there broke out what sounded singularly like a dog-bark; I heard a chatter of angry voices, something that echoed like a hearty slap, and next moment the door itself flew open and there stood, in the aperture a small, stout, dark man.

"Are you from Mr. Willis's?" he demanded, and when we nodded: "Praise be!" he commented piously, adding sharply: "Well, step in! Don't stand mooning!"

We followed meekly at her heels, past the manservant, standing aside, pale and malevolent, and up the staircase to the second floor. The hall lay before us a dim, gracious place of pearl-gray paneling and silver marble floor, but it was almost menacingly empty, and as we entered, Hugo swung round on the woman.

"Where is she?" he demanded. "She has been strutting before us like a small, belated turkey-cock, but at his words all her assurance dropped from her."

"In there," she said, pointing with a stubby, trembling forefinger to a closed door on our right. "That's the studio. They went in there two hours back, and Otilie said to wait for her, but when I saw it was getting late and I rapped on the door, there was no answer, and when I tried the handle, it was locked." Her lip trembled suddenly. "There's not a sound from inside," she said. "It's as quiet as a graveyard."

In two strides Hugo was beside the door. He knocked sharply, listened for a moment, then called: "Is anyone there?" But there was no answering call, and with tightened lips he turned to me. "You see? If they're there, she's unconscious. No one answers."

"Oh, Heaven!" said Cassandra Chubb, with a strangled sob; and then, on a sudden, she broke out in a fit of rage: "If there's something wrong, if that graven image has laid a finger on her—"

"All right," I said, giving her shoulder a comforting pat. "If anything's happened, Mr. Geiss will be adequately attended to and you'll have first smack at him, I promise you. But first we've got to find out what's happened. Try again."

"Geiss!" he shouted. "Open the door, damn you!" but nothing stirred.

"I was round on me, his face livid with fury. 'Come on!' he said. 'We've got to smash this door.'"

But I had been doing a bit of thinking, and I had remembered Jean-Francois's description of the layout of the house. I turned to where the manservant stood, watching us maliciously.

"Come here, my friend," I said, and as he reluctantly approached, I drew from my pocket a hundred-franc note from my wallet. "See here," said I, twirling them suggestively. "I want a little information, but there's a second exit from the studio?"

He took a long look at the money and nodded silently.

"And that door," I continued, "opens into the private chamber of Monsieur Geiss—the room which you are not permitted to enter?"

He started at that, and his sal-low face grew paler. "Monsieur is well informed," he said slowly, and his open hand came forward tentatively, but I drew back a step.

"I haven't had two hundred francs' worth of information yet," I warned him. "Tell me, is there a second key to the studio door?"

Guile

HE SHOOK his head. "Alas, no!" said he. "Monsieur Geiss and the young lady are without doubt in the private room, but the door from the studio is very strong, and that other door—" he jerked his head towards the end of the hall, "is even stronger. Also, Monsieur Geiss opens to no one when he is in that room."

"No?" I commented dryly. "Well, it's all to try for." I handed him the notes. "Go, my friend," I said. "Retire yourself into the uttermost recesses of your kitchen and don't come out till you're called for."

I watched him steal, cat-footed, across the hall and vanish through another door, then I turned to Cassandra Chubb, waiting at my elbow. "Stay here and keep an eye on the lines of communication," I told her, and she gave me a swift appraising nod.

There was a gently curving staircase at the hall's end, and beside it two malachite pillars flanked a narrow passage. Side by side Hugo and I made our way down it, but as we halted before the door at the far end, I groaned. "Phew!" I said dismally. "That unpleasant mental spoke the truth. It would take a wagon-load of dynamite to shift this obstruction."

It was painfully true. The door that faced us was a massive affair of bleached oak, handleless and broken only at a minute key-hole and a queer-looking bronze knocker. I lifted it and hammered lustily, but for a minute there was no reply; then, thin and thread-like through the solid wood, I heard Geiss's voice.

"Who knocks?" it said.

"It's Hugo Stern and Lumsden," I called back cheerfully. "Come to fetch Miss Otilie Willis. Her uncle is waiting for her."

There followed a moment's pause, and then, faint and faraway, I heard a soft cackle of laughter. "Hugo Stern and Lumsden must go away," came the voice again. "I open to no one till I am ready."

I looked at Hugo with raised eyebrows. "Smash the blasted thing!" he said between his teeth, but he said no more. He looked at the door and shook his head. "Samson couldn't do it," I told him. "No, old lad, we've got to try guile."

I put my lips to the keyhole. "Geiss!" I called. "Are you still there?"

"Indeed I am here, but you, my friends, unfortunately, are out there in the passage, and there, I fear, you must remain."

I laughed. "Oh, well," said I, very loudly and clearly, "who cares? I know all about your padded cell in there, and your black walls and your tame goat. I don't want to see it!"

For an instant complete silence hung heavy in the air, and then, suddenly, that I almost lost my balance, the door flew open and I saw Geiss standing in the aperture. His blunt lips hung apart in an almost ludicrous surprise, and the pebble-like eyes glared at me in a mixture of amazement and fury.

"You?" he said hoarsely. "You again? What do you know of my secret room? Who has told you?"

"Ah!" said I. "That's my little secret. And I pushed passed him into the room with Hugo at my heels."

"Otilie!" Hugo said sharply. "Are you all right?"

The girl made a little hopeless gesture of her hands.

"Can't a person have even a half a day to herself without interference?" she complained. "Certainly I'm all right. Mr. Geiss is me, and he's been telling me the most interesting things to keep me amused, all about this brat's that's happening next Sunday, and a friend of his that's got a marvelous yacht that's expected any day in the harbor..."

She looked up at Hugo, with a meaning, warning look in her dark eyes, but he was in no state to notice it.

Washington Daybook

By D. WORTH CLARK

(Guest Columnist for Freeman)

"Middle of the Road" Democratic representative from Idaho, who defeated "100 per cent New Deal" Senator James P. Pope in the senatorial primaries.

WASHINGTON—Ever since the world began, society has been torn between the forces of the standpat reactionary on one hand and the visionary theorist on the other. Both are equally bad. Either if given full rein will lead any country into ruin. Your reactionary will try nothing unless it is new.

After the World War, Europe found her economic conditions intolerable. She used desperate methods to remedy them but in so doing ended up in fascism and communism; and I think her last state is worse than her first. It occurs to me that the tyranny of some economic overlords can be destroyed without abandoning our American system of government.

The successful nations of the world such as England have endured for centuries because they have been able to steer a middle course. The English have an apt phrase for it, "muddling through."

It seems to me that America can and will muddle through. We must not reject the wisdom and admonitions of those who built this nation merely because this wisdom and advice came to us out of the past. There are some principles that grow even more valid with age.

For Old And New

ON THE other hand, in this high-speed mechanized era economic and social conditions change with kaleidoscopic rapidity, and it becomes necessary to constantly devise new methods to meet new problems. If we can utilize the new things without abandoning what is good in the old we can continue to make America great.

Tyranny in any form is a devastating thing, whether it be the tyranny of those who wield too much economic power or the tyranny of an autocratic government. We must always take care that in our efforts to avoid one form of tyranny we do not drift into another.

Optimist On U. S.

I AM extremely anxious to see the traditional independence of the three branches of our government preserved. Party leadership and party responsibility are of course desirable. They should not, however, be carried to the point of destroying the autonomy of either the executive, the congress or the judiciary. Each of these agencies has its proper functions to perform and, although there should be the fullest cooperation among them, there should be no subservience. The strength of our democracy lies in this.

As far as the future of America is concerned I am an optimist, or perhaps I should say, I am an optimistic realist. This nation was built on optimism and enthusiasm but it was not built unheedingly. Optimism must be tempered with realism; enthusiasm, with common sense; and if this is done democracy will work.

Port Ewen Flower Show

An Outstanding Success

Port Ewen, Sept. 6.—An attendance estimated at double that of last year made the flower show held by the Port Ewen Methodist Church Thursday an outstanding success. It was announced today.

The exhibit, which was the fourth held by the church, was shy in the number of exhibits as compared to other years, due to the unfavorable season of flowers, but they were unsurpassed in quality.

Outstanding for color and size were the gladioli and zinnias. The exhibits were also noticeably better than those of last year, the celery, leeks and onions attracting much attention.

The attendance this year proved beyond a doubt that interest in the annual event in growing. Many attended the cafeteria supper served in conjunction with the show. An entertainment and flower sale followed in the evening.

Judges in the show were: David Burgevin, Kingston; George Krudner, New Salem, and Jesse Burt, Kingston.

Repairs Started On Dutch Church

Among the numerous improvements being made to the First Dutch Reformed Church is the painting and redecorating of the chapel of the church, which has just been completed by Robinson & Storm, local painters and decorators under the supervision of Architect Harry Halverson.
Funds for this improvement were supplied by the Ladies Aid Society of the church and members of the Men's Wynkoop Guild.

It is expected that two of the windows of the church which are being restored by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, will be received this week for installation.
As rapidly as the work of restoration is completed the windows will be installed. There will be 22 windows which will be restored.
The church organ, which has been undergoing repairs and modernization at the factory, is also expected back this week.

Club Will Give Nursery Benefit

Arrangements have been completed by the Volunteers of America with the Men's Progressive Social Club, of 77 Greenkill avenue, for the latter to conduct a social party for the benefit of the building fund of the day nursery tomorrow evening at the nursery building, 24 Barnum avenue, with play starting promptly at 8
p. m. The entire proceeds of this party is to go toward this worthy cause.

The nursery takes care of approximately 36 children each day of the week, for the small sum of 10 cents. This sum can be no way pay for the meals they have each day, and the care given them by the girls of the N. Y. A. Therefore the nursery head must look to the public for financial aid to help carry on this work, and by patronizing this party one can have an enjoyable evening, and still be helping a worthy cause.

The committee in charge of this affair under the chairmanship of Walter J. Wilson consists of Mrs.
Vabel Bove, Edward Hinkle,
Walter Core, Joseph Carro, and Ernest Houghtaling. Tickets can be purchased from any of the above committee, or from the members of the Volunteers and from members of the Progressive Social Club.

Seeks Freedom To Name Slayer

Salem, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)— Warren county authorities checked today the assertion of a convict who was acquitted of the murder of Earl Davidson that he could name the slayer.

Carl C. Richardson, former Glens Falls restaurant proprietor, told Supreme Court Justice Elsworth C. Lawrence yesterday that if he were released he could provide evidence to corroborate the accusation he was prepared to make.

Richardson made the statement in a vain plea for release from Great Meadow state prison at Comstock where he is now serving terms for robbery and assault in connection with a 1935 liquor store holdup in Hudson Falls.

Davidson's body was found, a bullet hole in the neck, September 22, 1935, in a thicket outside this village. Richardson was acquitted of the slaying on June 6, 1936.

Woman Injured In 2-Car Crash

the Elchler Hotel Thursday night at 8 o'clock. A number of important items of business will come before the association for discussion.

One of the principal items will be the subject of a report on the hunting area. The matter of the association controlling the hunting and fishing rights for certain areas has been under discussion for some time and the committee in charge of securing these rights and working out a plan suitable for the operation of such a pro-

County Labor Committee To Hold Opening Meeting

Alfred H. Brady of Ulster County has spent some time on the subject and will probably have a report to make at this meeting.
The Ulster County Committee of the American Labor Party will hold its first meeting Friday evening of this week at the head quarters, 71 Broadway at 8 o'clock. Members of the committee will be present. The committee will be in charge of the county campaign throughout Ulster county.

OFFICE CAT

By Junius

Mr. MacTavish had been invited to spend an evening at a friend's house listening to a radio program. At its conclusion the host said:

Host—Well, Mac, what could a Scotchman desire better than that? Shining, instrumentalists, a talk on farming, opera, news of the day, a political speech, and dance music—all for nothing!

Mr. MacTavish—Aye, but we didn't have any neighbors.

Pat wanted to borrow some money from Michael, who happened to have a small boy with him at the moment.

Pat—"It's a fine child you have there, Mike. A magnificent head and noble features. Could you loan me ten dollars?"

Mike—I could not. 'Tis my wife's child by her first husband.

Personal Liberty: That which a man exchanges for a wife.

This definition of a gentleman is from the Washington, D. C. Star.

Mazie—Sadie, what is a gentleman?

Sadie—A gentleman is a man you don't know very well.

Typographical Error? "Gone to his last roasting place."

Billy—Uncle Cleveland, you are not married, are you?

Uncle Cleveland—No son.

Billy—Then who tells you what you ought not to do?

Gray-haired Physician (in a reminiscent mood)—When I was a boy, I wanted to be a soldier, but my parents persuaded me to study medicine.

Sympathetic Neighbor (consoling)—Oh, well, such is life. Many a man with wholesale ambitions has to content himself with a retail business.

The pupil was asked to paraphrase the sentence: "He was bent on seeing her."

He wrote: "The sight of her doubled him up."

The confident young man stopped in the apartment house hallway to call through the telephone, "Hello, baby!" he said. "This is Gideon!"

"There's so much noise on the line, I can scarcely hear you," came the voice of a girl on the other end of the line. "Who did you say it was?"

"Gideon, honey. G for gin. I for ice. D for drinking. E for excitement. G for ornery-eyed and N for necking. Got that, honey?"

"Well," answered the girl, "not all of it—but come on up anyhow."

We must pay for everything we need in this life whether we buy it or not.

Teacher—If you added seventy-six thousand, nine hundred and twenty-three to eighty-one thousand, four hundred and twelve, what would you get?

Pupil—A wrong answer.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

HOLLYWOOD—Item here recently on Frances Dee's secret and unusually fine test for the role of THAT heroine in THAT book had her fans jubilant. The Deaf-Scarlett campaign is under way—but write Selznick, not me.

Wallace Beery and Mickey Rooney are "Stablemates" in title only. Kay Francis says she's going to leave the late when she gets married and won't be back for a long time, if then.

Hollywood thinks Ariane Borg, the little French girl, had her nerve telling those reporters she drew $70,000 here for doing nothing.

The argument's always the same: "We gotta put 'em to find out if they've got anything." As Billy Wilkerson in the Hollywood Reporter put it, Henry Ford can spend thousands experimenting on a new gadget and toss it in the ashcan and nobody thinks anything of it—but let Hollywood spend a little experimenting on a personality and it's NEWS.

But on the other hand there's Deanna Durbin, passed up by Metro but a sensation at the U. S. And Bing Crosby, turned down plenty before his Paramount click.

And Gable, a reject until the fans howled for him. And Taylor, skipped by Goldwyn but saved by the fans for Metro.

One of the five pictures Nelson Eddy hears he's to do after "Sweethearts" is "I Married An Angel."

That's funny, because five years ago Eddy was brought to Hollywood to do that very musical comedy which today, because it's a stage hit, will become a movie.

They were afraid to do it as a picture then because of the "angel" angle. Now, whether they like it or not—and they do—they've a hit on their hands, and Eddy will play it at last. But the angel won't have wings. She'll be merely a very angelic human.

The role of "Lucky" in the Hopalong Cassidy westerns is just that. Jimmy Ellison played it first, went on to bigger things. Russell Hayden's doing it now. Hayden was a laboratory worker at Paramount, friend of Jimmy's when Ellison introduced him to the studio, and Sherman, Hopalong producer, and Sherman hired him as business manager. When Ellison left the "Cassidy" they put Hayden in his "Lucky" role. And then Hayden introduced his fiancée, June Clayton, to Sherman. From a small part in one Hopalong she was promoted to feminine lead in the next—and she's clicked.

Joan Crawford should be a big box-office in "The Sign of the Cross." She'll have help from Margaret Sullivan, Robert Montgomery and Melvyn Douglas. Joe Frisco, the one-time vaude headliner, is doing his old turns at the Seven Seas, cocktail house.

Breed Horses

Ogdensburg, N. Y. (AP)—Horse breeding is becoming an important new source of income for St. Lawrence county farmers. Farm bureau statistics indicate they will receive $120,000 from the sale of 500 horses bred in the county. Two years ago there were only 400 colts in the county. Many St. Lawrence county colts are being sold in other parts of the state.

Girl Wins Race

Niagara Falls, N. Y. (AP)—The Boys' Club met to hold a model sailboat race, but a girl ran away with one of the major prizes. Shirley Brown, 13, entered a boat in the class A race, for boats 24 to 30 inches long, and won.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Sept. 6.—Werner Rich of Glendale, L. I., is spending a few days with his friend, Tom Boardman.

Miss Joan Wendt has returned home after having been at the summer home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wendt Sr., for the past five weeks.

Harv Seal, a New York man, who has been coming to Shokan for more than 30 years, was a guest at the Harry Boardman farmhouse.

Miss Ann Didier of Flushing spent the holiday with her grandmother, Mrs. Auer Longyear.

Guests at the East Elmhurst home Sunday included the following: Mrs. William Clavin, a sister of Mrs. Elmhurst, and husband, Mrs. Betty Gruber, secretary of Dr. Harry Pitts of Kingston, and William Abbott of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Naughton have returned to Fleetwood following a stay of eight weeks in Shokan.

Gordon Davis and family of St. Louis will leave for their home Wednesday after having been guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Windrum. Mr. Davis, a native of Olive, is an uncle of Mr. Windrum.

At the Algot Olson camp during the past week were the following Brooklyn residents: Miss Mildred Olson, Mrs. Charles Sorenson, George Drysten and the Messes Doris Sorenson, Luella Dulle, Gloria Sorenson and Elsie Sorenson.

A real estate transfer of September 6, 1882, was that of a property at Brown's Station from Benjamin F. Teas to Abbie Winchell. The Teas farm of 40 acres was located a short distance from the present dividing weir bridge of the Ashokan Reservoir.

John Hamilton and family of Kingston spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Hamilton's mother, Mrs. Julia Hogan.

Spending Labor Day at the Herman Wendt place on the state road were the following New York city residents: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Glazer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ferri, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinocchio, Miss Anne Ferri, William Garza and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schuler.

Plans are being made to entertain a large number of visiting Old School Baptists at the forthcoming "Three Days' Meeting" in the Olive and Hurley meeting house, beginning Wednesday, September 14. The "Associations Meeting," a time-honored institution at the 80-year old church is generally attended by Baptists from several states and Canada. Preachers upon this occasion will include Elmers Lettters, Topping, George Huston, Lester Dodson and Arnold Bellows, the last named of whom is the present pastor of the local church.

ELLENVILLE

Harold McConnell of New York city is enjoying a week's vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McConnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Millott have as their guests for a couple of weeks, the latter's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Horn, of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Schwille of Schenectady have been spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwille.

Mrs. Otis Kelder has been confined to her home on South Main street by illness.

Attorney and Mrs. John Gilleran and family of White Plains are spending a few days with Mrs. Gilleran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore of Briggs Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Raymond have had as their guest for several days Miss Mira Bickford of Boston, Mass.

The Misses Hilda and Estelle Silverman spent the week-end in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Kaplan of Roseton, N. J., are spending their vacation at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. I. Rosenstock, of Canal street.

The Rev. and Mrs. O. M. Bennett of Napanoch have been enjoying a week's stay at Ocean Grove, N. J. The former is enjoying a month's vacation from the Napanoch M. E. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodard of Stratford, Conn., have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fleckenstein.

Miss Phyllis Burton of this village and Mrs. James Kimball of Brooklyn spent the week with the latter's father at Plattsburg, N. Y.

Rescue Deer
Syracuse, N. Y. (AP)—Game warden and hunters worked more than an hour in a heavy down-pour to rescue a deer from a foot pit in a swamp near here.

Gardens Floyd Fancett and William R. Brown said the deer, just out of the fawn stage, weighed pounds each. The rescue was effected by passing the deer up a way of men.

Play With Dynamite
Niagara Falls, N. Y. (AP)—Trooper John Ferguson went on a highway to see what a group of small boys was doing. He found them playing with 20 lbs. of dynamite. They told him they had found the explosive.

MODES of the MOMENT

by Adelaide Kerr

Arriving for tea at the Ritz, two young New Yorkers appear in 1933 fall suits. At the left is a tailor of black and white Scotch (sued), worn with a wool blouse. The costume suit at the right, designed by Helen Cookman, combines a gray wool dress and jacket trimmed with gray Persian lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. Chande Van De mark and son, Charles, have returned to their home at Glen Ridge, N. J., after spending some time as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Beatty.

Miss Ruth Mae Donald entered Kingston High School Tuesday.

The Rev. George W. Weber left for Atlantic Monday but will return later in the month to bid farewell to his many friends before returning to Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Nellie Hendricks and Mrs. Luther Hendricks called on Miss Julia Hasbrouck Saturday afternoon.

Troy News Leader
Troy, N. Y. (AP)—Dolomite II, the first of a new class of cargo vessel to be built by the Half-moon shipyard, was launched today.

The Half-moon shipyard, which is building the Half-moon, is located at a dock here. Although registered out of Rochester, N. Y., the 300-foot vessel can never return home, because she is too big for the state harbor canal. The ship operates in coastal trade between New York and Port Isabel, Texas.

Hoppers Invade Fields
Corning, N. Y. (AP)—Farmers in southern New York report a mild plague of grasshoppers. Robert Klock even blamed the "hoppers" for eating a hole in a pair of muleskin trousers. Potato crops were the pests' main target. Damage was slight.

Catchee Tune
Albany, N. Y. (AP)—To Mrs. Robert L. Kift, Bethlehem, Pa., goes the honor of catching the first tuna to be tagged and released on the American side of the Atlantic. The 10 pound, 24-inch fish was caught near Montauk Point, L. I., and bore a tag indicating it was released by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, which is conducting a survey of fish in Long Island waters in cooperation with the New York State Conservation Department.

Lion is Pet
Avoca, N. Y. (AP)—Rawley White, filling station operator, feeds his seven-year-old lioness a gentle pet. Acquired after a life in the circus, the lioness lives in a special cage near White's home.

But White enters the animal's cage unarmed, beckons the lioness, and she playfully cowers and rolls on the grass. After the play session, she unhesitatingly follows White's orders and walks back to her cage. The animal's cage is heated in winter by a stovepipe from his home.

Committees Named For Home Card Party Teachers In County

Mrs. M. H. Herzog, president of the board of managers of the Industrial Home, which organization will hold a benefit card party and food sale on Wednesday, September 14, at the Industrial Home on East Chester street, heads the committees on arrangements.

Serving with Mrs. Herzog on the executive committee, comprising the chairmen of various committees in charge of details of the benefit are:

Refreshments: Chairman, Mrs. Frank L. Eastman, Mrs. L. Phelps, Mrs. C. Ray Everett, Mrs. A. D. Pardee.

Card Tables: Chairman, Mrs. Harry B. Walker, Mrs. R. H. Van Valkenburgh, Mrs. John B. Storer.

Food Sale: Chairman, Mrs. William L. Van Ethen, Mrs. Harry R. LeFavor, Mrs. A. M. Gracian.

Cards will start at 2 o'clock and tables will be arranged on the lawn and porch if the weather permits and otherwise in the assembly rooms of the building.

Refreshments will be served during the afternoon. The nominal sum charged for the affair will include these refreshments. Already a number of tables have been filled as reported by Mrs. Harry B. Walker.

An added feature of the benefit will be the sale of unusual homemade food specialties donated by the members of the board.

The proceeds of the sale and card party will be used for necessary improvements in the home.

Silver Jubilee Celebrated

Marlborough, Sept. 7 — On Saturday evening when the New England annual dinner was held in St. Mary's Hall, Marlborough, under the sponsorship of the parish, and between the dinner and the dancing, the pastor, the Rev. James Hanley, was presented with a check for $1,400. The presentation was made by Andrew Berkery of Marlborough. Father Hanley was escorted to the center of the hall, where a large three-tier cake, donated by the Marlborough Catholics, with 25 candles and a beautiful bouquet were arranged on a table decorated with silver. Mr. Berkery told Father Hanley how much the Marlborough parishioners thought of him, and presented the check, which the local persons subscribed to. Born in New York city, Father Hanley attended St. Mary's School, New York, University of Ottawa, Canada, St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoody. He was ordained a priest May 25, 1907. His appointment was assistant pastor to the late Dr. Richard Lator (deceased) of Kingston. He was appointed pastor of St. Mary's Church, Marlborough, Sept. 17, 1912. A week ago Saturday, the Mission Church, Roseton, held a dance and on Sunday presented Father Hanley with a check of $500, from the Roseton Parish.

California Girl Leads in Contest

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 7 (AP). — A brown-haired 20-year-old Hollywood movie extra was a step ahead of 43 other American beauties today in the contest for the title of Miss America 1938 at the national beauty pageant.

Hazel-eyed Claire James of Los Angeles, who appeared as Miss California, was adjudged "most beautiful girl in evening gown" at last night's contest.

She first appeared in a white net dress which flared widely from the hips. Then she wore a black bathing suit and finally a $50,000 Russian sable coat.

Among others deemed in the running for the glory of being called Miss America at Saturday's concluding sessions were Miss Arizona, Miss Asbury Park, Miss Maryland, Miss Empire State, Miss Indiana, Miss Long Beach, N. Y., Miss Brooklyn, Miss Birmingham, Miss Minnesota, Miss New Jersey, Miss Indianapolis and Miss Utah. They all were called for second appearances.

Miss Long Beach, N. Y., who is blonde Marion Rosamond, was the only one who wore the new "up-sweep" hair style. She got loud applause every time she appeared and the judges called her twice.

Miss Long Island Sound, who is Adeline Margaret Shull, of Bridgeport, Conn., has chestnut hair, dark brown eyes and appeared in changeable blue taffeta.

Invent Handy Tool

Schenectady, N. Y. (AP). — Newest gadget for the tired summer worker: William A. Cryne and William D. Havens have developed a rake which, with a flick of the finger, will remove grass and leaves that adhere to the teeth—all without bending over.

FOR IN AND OUT OF THE HOUSE

MARIAN MARTIN

PATTERN 9351

How to look fresh and smart when "in the thick" of household chores? Pattern 9351 is the perfect answer. So attractive is this Marian Martin design that you'll wear it shopping as well as around the house. And it's a joy to make — ONLY FOUR major pieces in the whole dress! Only two in the bodice! Run up one style using the dainty collar, and another with equally becoming square collarless neck. You'll find each fun to trim, since ric-rac and buttons or ribbon bows add such distinctive charm. Choose an all around or half-belt — and short kimono or cap sleeves.

Pattern 9351 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16, dress with collar, requires 3½ yards 36 inch fabric and 3 yards ric-rac.

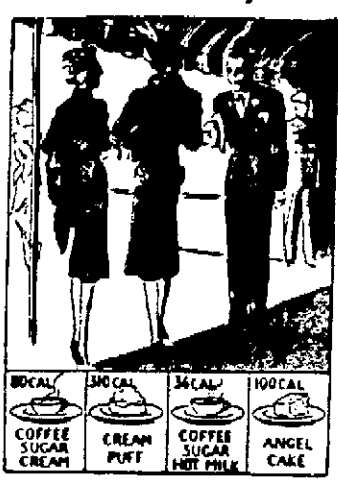

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STREET NUMBER.

Write for YOUR COPY of the new MARIAN MARTIN BOOK OF PATTERNS! See the latest Fall fashions, fabrics, accessories! All the new clothes you need for the season are pictured. Lovely frocks for daytime and parties! Chic for college and business girls! Stylish things for children! Snow-time sportswear! Styles for the "would-be-slender" woman! Smart lingerie — and dresses for around the house. Helpful gift ideas too! Easy patterns that invite "beginners"! Send your order today! BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. WHEN THE BOOK AND PATTERN ARE ORDERED TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Win Youthful Figure With Low-Calory Diet

Do a Sister Act with Daughter

What fun Mrs. Ex-Plump and her daughter have, now they both wear smart size 16 and look like sisters! From the admiring glances that come her way, Mrs. Ex-Plump knows that she really does look young since she lost those surplus pounds. She's glad she started counting calories!

Last year her mid-afternoon shopping snack would have been a luscious cream puff (310 calories), coffee with one tablespoon cream and two lumps sugar (80 calories) — 390 right there.

But not now. She has a piece of angel cake (100 calories). She doesn't deny herself coffee but takes it with one lump of sugar and two tablespoons of hot skim milk (36 calories) — only 136 calories altogether. She's had a delicious snack and saved 254 calories.

Why be limited to the "larger woman" racks when you want a new dress? The smart styles are always designed for slim figures. It's easy to take off two pounds a week on a satisfying low-calory diet. Our 32-page booklet gives balanced reducing menus for two weeks. Three-day liquid diet. Calory chart. Tells how to gain weight, too.

Send 10c in coin for your copy of THE NEW WAY TO A YOUTHFUL FIGURE, to the Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Service, 615 Sixth avenue, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and the NAME of your letter.

New York — The "Children's World" at the New York World's Fair 1939 may prove to be the most popular attraction in the 280-acre amusement zone for adults as well as youngsters. Parents will be able to leave children in this miniature world with confidence that they will be under trained supervision and have everything to play with their hearts desire. Not only this, the children will have opportunity for meals and repose.

JOIN THE SWING TO Gas for HOUSE HEATING

$100 A MONTH

PLUS A SMALL INSTALLATION CHARGE
PAYS FOR THE EQUIPMENT . . . !

A FEW OF THE MANY HUNDREDS OF HOMES That Last Year "Swing to Gas"! Joined The

To enjoy the comfort of COMPLETELY AUTOMATIC GAS HOUSE HEATING these friends and neighbors of yours were not obliged to buy any expensive equipment or undergo any extensive alterations to their heating plants. A SIMPLE LITTLE BURNER WAS INSTALLED IN THEIR PRESENT FURNACES and they knew . . . IN ADVANCE . . . just what the cost of heating through the year was going to be!

With another heating season fast approaching, look these facts over and then decide to have your home "measured" for gas heating. A survey costs you nothing, obligates you in no way, gives you the EXACT figures.

1 Simple Equipment

We install in your present furnace a compact little burner, so small you can hold it in the palm of your hand, yet so powerful it will keep your home at an even temperature regardless of outside weather.

2 No Change Is Made in Your Heating Plant

The grates are not even removed! It takes only a few hours to adapt your furnace for Automatic Gas House Heating.

3 The Cost

$1.00 a month, plus a small installation charge, pays for the equipment. The fuel cost may be budgeted through the year in twelve equal monthly payments, since you will know, in advance, just how much this cost will be.

4 We Will Furnish You With an Estimate

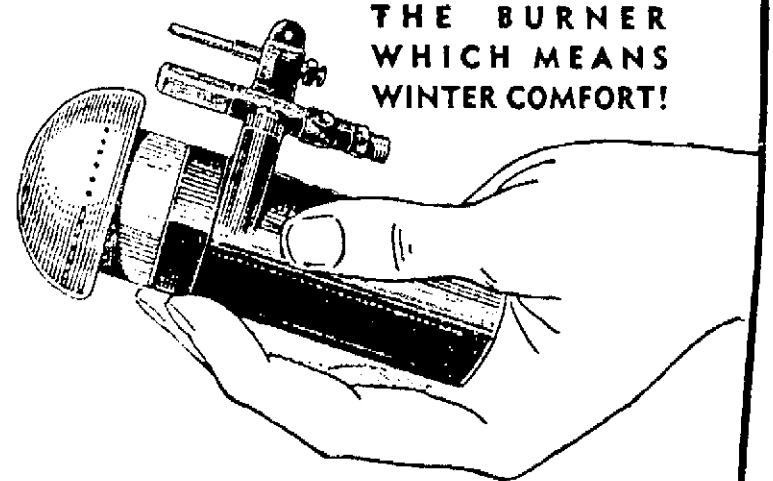

As stated before, you will know IN ADVANCE just how much it will cost to heat your home this ideal way. To furnish this estimate your house must be "measured." We will be glad to do this at your convenience. There's no obligation on your part, of course.

5 A Guaranteed Fuel Bill

Not only will you know in advance exactly how much your heating cost will be but, for the first year, YOUR BILL WILL BE GUARANTEED NOT TO EXCEED THE AMOUNT ESTIMATED.

6 For Spring and Fall Months

Install this burner in your furnace for seasonal heating—for the time of year when other fuels give you the greatest difficulty . . . when it's warm and sunny one day and cold and damp the next. If you do not wish to use it through the winter, use it until steady cold weather sets in. At that time a service man will remove it for your return to previous methods of heating, at no cost to you.

So You Are Going Back To School

School life is made up of a lot of things other than books and classes. Although this student looks plenty studious, he will participate in a great many activities other than study and for which he'll need a lot of things other than books.

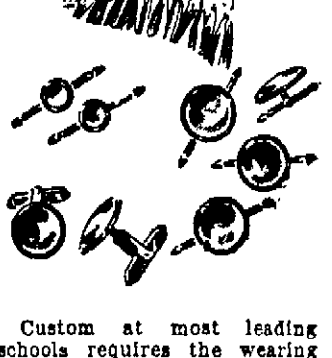

Cameras of all kinds are today a standard piece of equipment for school life. And rightly so, for thus in this never-to-be-regained phase of life recorded. And studies are used for things other than study—hence, a radio is pretty much a necessity.

Proper care lengthens the life and maintains the appearance of your clothes tremendously. A properly made hanger, formed to shoulder shape, is not expensive, and pays big dividends.

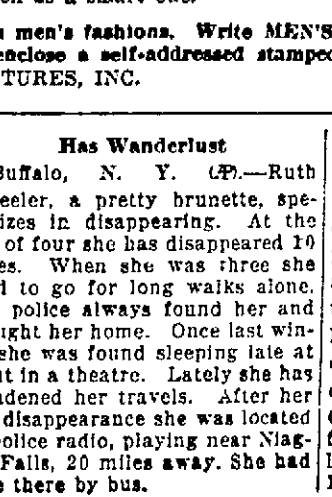

Football will soon provide extra-curricular activities, and we all know the essentials to a proper participation, even if it is from the stadium. Your own portable seat, a rug for the girl friend and a hot—or cold—drunk for the party.

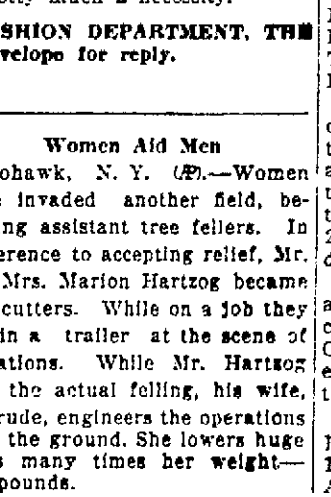

Your study will soon become your home and, if you smoke, there's nothing that lends a homier atmosphere than a humidifier and a few favorite pipes around the place. The tobacco pouch shown is convenient and compact by having a self-contained compartment for a pipe and closed with a Talon slide-fastener.

Custom at most leading schools requires the wearing of formal or semi-formal evening wear on some few occasions during the year. The opera or crush hat is the first requisite, and a monogrammed silk muffler is an excellent going-away gift. This dress set of jewelry is of onyx, with a plain gold ring, and it is customary to wear a matching set of links studs and waistcoat buttons.

In the final analysis, school does mean work, and a workman is only just as good as his tools. Hence, a typewriter—portable, naturally—and a good pen and pencil set are pretty much a necessity.

Stamps In The News

By James H. Hatcher

By The AP Feature Service
Prince Simeon Tarnovsky, son of King Boris and long-awaited heir to the throne of Bulgaria, makes his philatelic bow on a set of five stamps prepared by a photographer.

The royal youngster was about a year old when the picture reproduced on these stamps was taken.

The 1-leva green, 2-leva rose and 7-leva blue show the prince seated on a pillow. The 4-leva orange and 14-leva brown carry the head alone from the same photograph. The issue commemorates the infant's first birthday.

Simeon is the name of a famous Bulgarian czar of a thousand years ago.

Catalogue Due September 19
The 1939 edition of the "Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue" will be issued on September 19, according to Scott Publications, Inc. The United States section, among the pages released in advance, illustrates all the varieties in accord with the new stamp illustrations law, which will make this edition of the catalogue especially desirable.

Another French Semi-Postal
France is surely risking the alienation of collectors in general with her glut of new semi-postals and special issues. Stamp issuing has become chiefly a fund-raising method for various causes, and the matter of postal requirements is no longer the controlling factor.

The newest offering from Paris is designed to raise funds to return soulless Frenchmen from Spain. It is a 65-centime plus 65-c light red and pictures La Belle France welcoming a French girl against a background of the French flag and a group of refugees with war clouds in the distance. Across the bottom runs the phrase, "Aidez aux Français Rapatriés d'Espagne."

Lichtenstein Sheet
For the Third National Philatelic Exhibition held at Vaduz, Lichtenstein, a miniature sheet was issued on July 30. It includes four 50-rappen stamps, all bearing a portrait of Dr. Joseph Rheinberger, the organist and composer. The stamps were designed by Prof. William Jachauer and engraved on steel by Prof. Ferdinand Lorber. The State Printing Office at Berlin did the printing.

A mourning stamp in memory of the late Prince Franz I, who was succeeded by Prince Franz Josef on March 30 as Lichtenstein's ruler, is expected to be issued soon. It will probably be the 1933 3-franc stamp printed in black instead of violet-blue.

Tyler and Polk
The 10-cent salmon Tyler stamp of the presidential series will go on sale at Washington September 2, and the 11-cent blue Polk issue on September 8.

Both John Tyler and James K. Polk are newcomers to philately. Tyler was President 1841-45, Polk, 1845-49.

First-day sales of the new 7-cent sepia Jackson at Washington August 4 exceeded those of any previously issued stamp in the series. First-day covers totaled 98,414, and altogether 254,069 copies were sold that day.

The color, officially described as sepia, is a rich brown which comes in two distinct shades. One is definitely lighter. Whether these color variations will continue is, of course, uncertain.

'Make It Two' Said Most Often by Twins

CLEVELAND. — "Alike as two peas in a pod" was probably never more true than in the case of Ed and Bill Day, identical twins. The brothers, leading almost duplicate existences, have been saying "Make it two" all their lives as they ordered hats, shoes, food.

Anything one wanted, he assumed the other also desired, and ordered two. This was because they wear the same sizes and weigh the same—to the pound.

They have been together for 54 years—ever since they were born, except for one period of two weeks, when they were separated long enough to pitch on different ball teams.

They share the same bed, one never turning in without the other. In the morning they arise at the same time, do their setting up exercises in unison, take a walk together in the park, cook and eat breakfast together.

Then they leave for work together—both are foremen, and if they are late it is quite possible that in their haste they have dressed in each other's clothing—not that it makes any difference.

Italy Plans Motorists' Paradise in Ethiopia

ROME.—The "hell-hole" of creation will soon be a motorists' paradise, if Mussolini's plans are completed.

Over 1,400 miles of macadam roads are now being laid down in Italy's new African Imperial colonies, according to a report made by the Italian ministry of public works.

The first stretch to be inaugurated will be "Victory Highway" which follows the line of march taken by Marshal Badoglio when he ploughed through the Négus' army to Addis Ababa, two years ago. This road will connect the capital with Asmara, chief city of the Eritrean province, and Massau, Red sea port.

Brutally Slain

Brutally beaten, the body of Barbara Driscoll, 8, (above), was found under a building in the Portsmouth, N. H., railroad yards. Police held an ex-convict; planned to compare his hair with strands in the death-clutched hand of the little girl.

Says Dailies Help
Troy, N. Y. (AP)—Daily newspapers of New York state are valuable as "an adjunct to the law enforcement agencies," says the state police bureau of criminal investigation. The unit's official bulletin related that newspapers, sensing a "story," publicized theft of a valuable desk from a Saratoga Springs resident. A New York city antique dealer, remembering the stories, notified authorities he had unwittingly purchased the desk.

Buffalo, N. Y. (AP)—Ruth Wheeler, a pretty brunette, specializes in disappearing. At the age of four she has disappeared 19 times. When she was three she used to go for long walks alone. The police always found her and brought her home. Once last winter she was found sleeping late at night in a theatre. Later she has broadened her travels. After her last disappearance she was located by police radio, playing near Niagara Falls, 20 miles away. She had gone there by bus.

College All Stars Vs. Giants Tonight

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—Equipped with enough man-power to turn attendant coaches emerald green with envy, the Eastern College All Stars will lay eleven gorgeous reputations on the line tonight against the rough, tough New York Giants of the National Pro League.

The All Stars, a dazzling collection from 15 eastern colleges, will seek their first victory in three Herald-Tribune fresh air fund games. A crowd of about 45,000 is expected to jam the Polo Grounds most of them pulling for the Collegians.

They will have to pull very hard. The Giants, second in the league's eastern division last season, have added several new players. Top newcomer is Leonard (Fats) Barnum, the old West Virginia Wesleyan Blue, considered by the Giants to be the best all-around back to wear their uniform since Ken Strong.

John Glidew, a veteran and a mighty punter acquired from Pittsburgh's Pirates, will be in there. The All Stars missed Yale's great Clint Frank but they have a gaudy collection of backs just the same.

Aud Kerr, Colgate's canny Caledonian, has equipped the stars with the multiple variations of the double wing back system that have made him famous as an offensive coach.

"They are as good as any all star team can be, but playing the Giants is something else again," said he. Steve Owen, the circular Giants coach, is fairly optimistic but he wishes Falaschi were ready.

King, New England Champ, Carlson, Fanelli, Anderson in Midget Track War Sunday

Woodstock, Sept. 7.—Rabid racing fans who witness each program at Woodstock's Legion Speedway and who went away following the events on Sunday arguing whether Fanelli would have beaten Rufus Anderson, if he had not blown in the feature race will have an opportunity to see the issue settled next Sunday, September 11.

The two speedsters, who hold two 25-lap victories each, will endeavor to settle the issue when the flags go up for the ninth meeting of the summer at the popular Catskill Mountain oval.

In addition Bob King, who shakes his head ruefully at himself when questioned about the events last Sunday, says he'll be back to fear the track up and show both Fanelli and Anderson and any other challengers what he's noted for throughout the New England circuits.

Boiceville Wins Two Contests

The Boiceville Rangers pulled out of their slump, winning two games over the week-end. The Mountaineers defeated Marlborough 4-1 and then overthrew the Berard A. C. by the lopsided score of 15-5.

Dick Lange hurled for Boiceville against the Marlborough club, striking out three, giving seven hits and walking four. Al Davis led the Boiceville clubbers, collecting three out of four, one a triple. Wenzel stood out at second for the Rangers.

McCormick pitched for the losers, allowing seven hits, fanning five and walking four. Kelly led the batters.

In the slaughter of the Berardis, Red Lane was on the mound for Boiceville, holding the visitors to six hits. He fanned three and walked two. His support was none too good, his teammates piling up 12 errors, six in the outfield.

All of the Rangers slugged in this contest. Schneider poked four out of five, Wenzel three out of four, and Lane two out of four. Bush poked two tremendous wallopers for a single another for a double. Benjamin made two out of three.

Decco, Celuch and Joyce were pounded for 19 hits by the visiting Rangers. Four of these hits were doubles. Ralph Deccio was the only one of the Berardis who could touch Red Lane. He cracked two out of four.

Lawyers to Play Softball Saturday

Considerable secrecy surrounds the baseball game which will be played Saturday at Glenford when the members of the Ulster County Bar Association hold their regular monthly meeting at the summer camp of Senator Charles W. Walton at Glenford, but it has been learned that the game Saturday afternoon is not a practice game prior to the Bar members accepting a challenge from the Kingston police team.

In scouting around for a few more good players Tuesday, Assistant District Attorney N. LeVan Haver stated that the game scheduled was between the Republican and Democratic members of the Bar. The game is to be a pre-election skirmish to determine the strength of the two major parties not at the polls but on the baseball diamond. With "Bud" Culleton, Judge Harry E. Schrick and a few more of the "Old" Colonials on the Democratic side of the contest the opposition is looking around secretly for a few more players.

After the baseball game Saturday there will be a beef steak dinner served at 5 o'clock. The game is being scheduled for 2 o'clock. All members of the Ulster County Bar Association are urged to attend the outing and dinner.

Softball Playoff In Church League

Tonight's deciding game in the Church Softball League playoff will bring together the Clinton Avenues and Fair Streeters at Armory diamond. Starting time of the game is 6:15 o'clock.

Each team has won a game, the Fair Streeters taking the first 10-4, and the Clintons the second, 6-3. This evening's clash to split the tie promises to be a thrilling encounter.

Don Weeks and Whitey Meyers will make up the battery for Clinton Avenues, and Harold Clayton and Bill Newkirk for the Fair Streeters.

Two National Champs Are On Fight Card for Friday Night at the Auditorium

Two more national boxing champions are slated for appearance at the municipal auditorium Friday night. They are Don Perfetti, Diamond Belt title holder in the bantamweight class, and Steve Kukol, national lightweight title holder.

Perfetti will trade leather with Kenny Horton of Birmingham, the purist who put it all over Carlo Litz last week, and Kukol will come to blows with none other than that popular little flyer, Carmine Fatta, who won the national title from Newburgh, Carmine Fatta.

In Horton, Perfetti, the pride of Amsterdam, will be meeting a rugged little wallop, and a smartie in ring tactics. Horton challenged him last week, and counts on proving to Kingston fans of Italian that Dom can be beaten.

Perfetti has a string of wins to his credit at the auditorium, and is a popular kid with the local crowd of night patrons. "Dom is a smart fighter, but I think I can beat him after watching him against my stablemate Harry LaSalle," said Horton.

LaSalle, Canadian Olympic representative, lost to Perfetti last week in one of the top five rounds on the bill of scraps.

Carmine Fatta hopes to add to his laurels when he climbs through the ropes with Steve Kukol, Golden Gloves star who won the national title at Chicago.

Kukol is a lightweight, and has been meeting the featherweight, Fatta, "but it's okay with me about scrapping with Kukol if the Kingston fans want the match."

Because of Fatta's match with the national champ, a crowd of Newburgh followers is expected at the auditorium Friday.

Monty Armstrong, conqueror of Dink Bays last week, will do a return engagement with Corky Dukaljan of Newburgh, the slam bang puncher who keyed him several weeks ago. "I'll prove I can beat him," said Monk when the return was listed.

Sergeant Petty, formerly of West Point, will be back at the auditorium facing Jimmy Don, who is as durable as Eddie Pagan, who went five rounds with Brad Lewis last week.

Eddie Pagan will be down from Birmingham again, this time to swap hooks and jabs with the hard hitting Rod Van Alstyne, and Frankie Abright, popular little blonde movie featherweight, will be on the bill for the second week in a row.

There are seven bouts listed, the first being scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Joneses and Hedricks in City League Match Tonight

Jones Daly and Hedricks clash in a replay of their 3-3 draw on August 19 in tonight's diamond menu at the Athletic Field. The Milkmen, still retaining a mathematical chance of coping first place, will make their start of the home stretch against the embattled Brewsters. Ad Jones' crew is slated for action Thursday against the Knights in the season's wind up for the Dalrym.

Julius Chick, strapping right-hander, is the probable hurling choice of the pennant hungry Dalrym. Chick flashed brilliant form in a relief role last week against Closi, fanning five in a two-inning attack. Eddie Minerva and young George Cutch will be on hand while Baumgartner will send Big Vic Kan or Charles Neff to the hill. Joneses were off for against Closi and may bounce back on the winning end tonight. Baumgartner's Brewsters will be out to knock the batter and egg boys out of the race. The tilt tonight was moved back one day in the state in order to avoid a postponement, being scheduled originally for Tuesday.

Second Half Standings
Knights 3 1 6.66
Closi A. C. 2 2 .669
Grunewalds 3 2 .669
Kyanize 2 2 .500
Jones Daly 1 2 .333
Hedricks 1 2 .250

Thursday—Knights vs. Jones Daly (replay August 29).
Friday Kyanize vs. Knights (replay August 31 the game).

Match in Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 7 (AP)—Defending champions in both men's and women's divisions of the world amateur softball tournament will inaugurate the 1938 title tournament at Mills Stadium.

Briggs Beautyware of Detroit, men's winners, will be opposed by Chicago's Lifetime Motors. The 1937 girl champions, now playing under the name of the Cleveland Num Nums, will face the Curlew Clothes team of St. Louis.

The rest of the entries from 44 states and Canada will begin play over five fronts at noon tomorrow.

Big Joe Brown Is Winning Pitcher, Swarty Gives Up 7

2 Costly Errors
Closi Slip Into Second Place
Tie With Grunies—Caseys Need Two More Victories for Flag

With Big Joe Brown hurling a four-inning no-hit, no run pitching classic, the Knights kayoed Gus Steigerwald's Closi A. C. by an 8-0 count at the Athletic Field last night. Brown's bid of fame bid thwarted the Grunies' second half pennant push as the rampant Closis shelved Swarthout for 7 innings over the curtailed route. Freddie Davi's pill pounders knocked the Closi out of the top four-run outposts in the opening frames to cap the verdict.

Making his first City League start since August 11, Brown blazed his sizzler past the Closi willow wavers in sensational fashion. The Knights' Big Train fanned seven during the four-inning stretch and allowed only two Grunies to set foot on first.

Walters to Steigerwald and Swarthout were the only homebushes. Brown's "perfect" performance. With his drollard smoking through in former fashion, Brown dominated the Steigerwald slugers to check their dramatic victory spurge.

Faced by the Thumping Tians, the Caseys blasted the left-handed slants of Bud Swarthout for seven assorted safe slugs. Swarthout was way off color and the clubbing Knights bladed early to collect eight markers in the first two innings. Swarthout's wildness kept him in hot water as six runners straggled to first before darkness descended. Closi failed to display their customary dash and hustle during the crucial contest and hastened their own downfall with two costly errors.

Knights Club Hall
Painting Swarthout for six safeties, the K. of C. chased home eight runs to salt the tilt away during the opening innings of the fray.

Hoffman (who drew three walks) straggled to open the first and after Benjamin's sacrifice, dented the rubber on Francello's single. Mac Tiano lashed a double to left, tallying Francello, who pulled in second. Jim Steigerwald executed a neat cut-out of Jim Ashdown's relay to nip Mac going into second. Charley Tiano's stroll and Martin's double, coupled with Ed Ashdown's miscellany, accounted for runs number 2 and 3.

Walks to Hoffman and Benjamin, singles by the brothers Tiano and Brown, linked with Jones' scintillating fly accounted for a quarter more in the second to run the Casey's string to eight tallies before Swarthout settled down. Mac Tiano blasted in three markers during the twin assaults to show the way with the wood.

Closi's Loss Changes
The 8-0 whitewashing, ruined the pennant bid of the amazing Grunewalds and Gus Steigerwald's clubbers slugged into a second-place deadlock with Grunewalds.

Both clubs have won three and lost twice during the upstartious first round. The Knights advanced a notch in the torrid second-half going and victories over Jones Daly and Kyanize will bring home the bacon, for the present pace-setters.

Mac and Charley Tiano crashed out four of the Knights' hits, driving in five markers between them. Jimmy Martin and Charley Tiano blasted doubles to lead the extra-base brigade as the Casey powerhouse cut loose in devastating style.

Check Goes Back To Helen Moody

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—The check for $1,399.45 that has been batted back and forth between Mrs. Helen Willis Moody and the Wightman Cup committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association is back with Mrs. Moody today. Both parties are just where they started.

Mrs. Moody sent the check to lawn tennis governing body on August 23 with the explanation that inasmuch as she would be unable to enter the National Championships at Forest Hills because of poor physical condition, she was returning the expense money given her for her trip to England, where she played on the tournament.

Wightman Cup team and the Wimbledon women's title. It might be explained that players sent abroad for these two classics feel obligated to play in the American championships.

Yesterday Julian Myrick, chairman of the Wightman Cup committee, sent the check back to Mrs. Moody with a courteous letter, which praised her record as a player and told her she was "certainly entitled to have had your expense paid by the association."

"The expenses were a proper charge against the event (the Wightman Cup) and your representing us in the British championship," wrote Myrick.

Mrs. Moody's letter which accompanied return of the check had hinted that the neuritis and generally poor condition which forced her to withdraw from Forest Hills might end her competitive career.

Amateur Golf Title Tourney Starts Monday

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—An army of 169 of the nation's crack amateur golfers will start after the national championship at Pittsburgh's Oakmont Country Club Monday in the first qualifying round of the tourney.

The first round includes two notable pairings. Johnny Goodman, of Omaha, the defending champion, will play around with Frank Strafaci, the former U. S. Public Links champion, and Ray Billows, runner-up to Goodman last year, is paired with Charlie Yates, of Atlanta, like Billows a member of the Walker Cup team and the British amateur champion.

Caano Jannsen, Jr., of Oakmont, and Alvin L. Dolling of Roanoke, Va., will be the first pair to tee off for the opening 18-holes of medal play and will be followed at five minute intervals by the other two teams.

The field will be cut by about 20 or 30 players for Tuesday's second medal play round of 18 holes, in order to leave ample time in case a playoff is necessary to decide the last few of the 64 qualifying places for the match play which starts Wednesday.

Billows and Yates start their first round at 1:05 p. m. (E. S. T.)

Top Weight for Stagehand, 126

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—Maxwell Howard's Stagehand, leading money winner of the year, has been assigned top weight for Saturday's runnings of the Edgemere Handicap at Aqueduct.

The Howard entry will carry 126 pounds. Thanksgiving is next with 121, Isolator and The Chief carry 119 and Fighting Fox and Bull Lea enter at 118.

Nyrou Salznick's Can't Wait came back after a three months rest and—aply enough—won the Exile Handicap at Aqueduct yesterday. The chestnut son of Victoriano, which finished third in the Kentucky Derby, scored by a length and a half over the Wheelables Stormscurd, the 7 to 5 favorite, and ran the six and a half furlongs in 1:18 1-5.

Artillery Team Battles In 12-Goal Semi-Finals

Chicago, Sept. 7 (AP)—The United States artillery team of Fort Sill, Okla., and Austin of San Antonio, Tex., finalists in the national intercircuit polo tournament, squared off again today—in the national 12-goal semi-finals.

Fort Sill, seeking a sweep of the national matches at Oak Brook, won its earlier encounter with the Texans, 9 to 8. The winner will meet Santa Barbara, Calif., for the title Sunday.

Common Council Votes $70,000

like many other things nowadays, beyond our local control.

Cities Need of $70,000

It will require $70,000 to continue home relief and work relief until January 1st. To issue certificates of indebtedness and include this sum in next year's tax levy would raise the tax rate $2.00 per thousand. For almost five years now I have struggled with the mounting cost of welfare and relief and with demands for increased municipal services and, by close attention to the task at hand, have tried to fit them within a tax rate as low as possible. That we have succeeded is shown by the following comparison:

Ten years ago the city paid annually about $10,000 for welfare and relief. In the 1928 budget there was included a net amount of $214,503.50 for welfare and relief. Notwithstanding this tremendous increase in welfare costs, the tax rate for 1928 was no higher than it was ten years ago, when only $10,000 was spent for relief. If our relief costs had been on the same level as they were ten years ago, our 1938 tax rate would have been $2.42 instead of $3.82.

If those high relief costs are to continue year after year, however, the tax rate cannot be kept at its present level, but must increase. For instance, we paid off this year a net amount of $152,000.00 in relief bonds and interest. In 1939 we must pay about $175,000.00, an increase of $100 per thousand in the tax rate.

I hereby declare that an emergency still exists in the city of Kingston due to unemployment and recommend that your honorable body appropriate $20,000.00 for home relief to supply the necessities of life to those in distress, and $50,000.00 to supply materials, supplies, equipment, and incidental expenses as the city's share of continuing WPA operations in this city, that you authorize the issuance of bonds to be sold in 1939 covering the appropriation for WPA recommended herein, that you thereafter authorize the issuance of certificates of indebtedness to be paid from the proceeds of said bond issue, and that you also authorize the issuance of certificates of indebtedness in the sum of $20,000.00 for home relief to be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Public Welfare Law of the State of New York, as amended ($10,000.00 in bonds in 1939; $1,000.00 in 1940 budget).

In my last New Year's message to your honorable body, I stated that if no further funds were borrowed, the city would in 1938 with a net decrease of $72-779.92 in its total funded debt.
With the issuance of the certificates recommended herein, we will end the year with a decrease in our city debt of only $2-379.92.

Water Debt Decrease

By the end of 1938, the general city debt (relief and schools) will have increased during the last five years $855,500.00 and the water debt has decreased $156-000.00 making a net increase of $199,500.00 in the total city debt. The cost of home and work relief is entirely responsible for this increase. Relief debt has increased by approximately $100-000.00 a year during the past five years.

In 1939 we will pay off $141-000.00 in bonds issued in prior years. If business conditions and employment remain at present levels, it will cost more than $114,000.00 in addition to our 1939 budget appropriations to pay for the cost of home and work relief and we will again have to increase our debt.

The issuance of these certificates will bring the city's total debt to $2,113,629.91, of which water bonds amount to $310-000.00, leaving a total of $1-803,629.91 of school and general city bonds subject to the constitutional debt limit. Our constitutional debt limit is $2,300,000.00, which means that we have left a debt margin of only $700,000.00 to meet future obligations for relief and emergencies.

This means that if business conditions do not materially improve or Kingston does not obtain new industry or increased industrial and commercial payrolls, and if the same fiscal and taxing policies prevail, we will have exhausted our credit in the very near future.

Unless some drastic improvement occurs in the national economy, we face a future which demands the earnest and thoughtful consideration and cooperation of all our people.

Very truly yours,
C. J. HEISELMAN,
Mayor.

Holds Conference

Mayor Heiseisman held a conference with the aldermen on Tuesday afternoon at which time the relief situation in Kingston was thoroughly discussed. At that time the mayor called the attention of the aldermen to the fact that $70,000 was needed to carry on relief during the remainder of the year in the city.

Nathan Objects

At the council meeting Tuesday evening Alderman Nathan of the Eighth ward said that while he would vote in favor of appropriating the $70,000 needed, he wanted to object to the method of raising the money. He said the major should be censured for not having included the $70,000 in the budget the first of the year.

He said that the mayor should have been able at that time to anticipate the money would be needed.

Alderman Nathan said it was only a question of time when the city debt limit would be reached and instead of an increase of a dollar or so in the tax rate there would then be an increase of $15
a thousand in the rate.

The alderman from the Eighth ward said that "our city administration is adopting the Washington theory of borrowing itself out of a depression, but the federal government has no debt limit, while Kingston has a constitutional limit." He said that the mayor had not played fair in his budget.

Alderman Donnarumma of the Sixth ward also spoke and said that no money had been appropriated in the budget for WPA.
He said that "it behooved the administration to submit a true budget next year."

Garon's Defense

Alderman Garon of the Twelfth ward said it should not be forgotten that an emergency existed for the taxpayers as well as those on relief, and to grant relief to taxpayers was the reason why money needed for relief purposes was obtained by bond issue instead of collecting it all at once from the taxpayers.

Alderman Garon said that Aldermen Donnarumma and Nathan should realize that no one could accurately estimate the amount needed each year to carry on relief work and what the city would have to spend for relief purposes.
This year the city has paid off more than it had borrowed.

He said that if the alderman from the Sixth Ward would look over the 1938 budget again he would find an item included of $214,500 for relief purposes, and that included the WPA program.

Unanimously Approved

The council then unanimously approved an appropriation of $20-000 for home relief and $50,000 for work relief. This money will be raised by a bond issue, but before the bonds are sold the money needed will be raised on certificates of indebtedness.

Bus Terminal Request

The Kingston City Transportation Company, which operates the city bus lines, sent in a communication asking for permission to change the present bus terminal at Broadway and Cedar street, to Henry street and Broadway, and would like to try out this proposed new terminal for a two-week period before being granted permanent permission to do so.
The request was referred to the bus committee.

Asks Stop Signal

Mrs. Pauline Gardner of Albany avenue sent in a request that a stop and go signal be installed at Albany avenue and Wrentham street to relieve traffic danger.
The request was referred to the traffic control committee.

Seeking Damages

Thomas Kerr of 75 Hudson street wrote that while his car was parked on Hewitt Place the city was blasting stumps 400 feet away on Lounsbury Place and that one of the stumps damaged his car to the extent of $17.50, which he desired the city to reimburse him. It was referred to the auditing committee.

Polling Places

Polling places for the fall election were designated. They remain the same as last year.

Other Matters

Alderman Zucca said he had had an engineer look over the council chamber and he did not favor installing a loud speaker system as it would not work successfully. The committee was still working on the problem he said.

President Selwenk informed Alderman Donnarumma in regard to the latter's resolution that a committee be appointed to investigate the accounts of the WPA purchasing agent, that he had visited the office in the city hall and found that the accounts were open for public inspection and he did not believe the appointment of such a committee was necessary.

President Selwenk appointed Aldermen Zucca, Connelly and Donnarumma as members of the charter revision and city planning committee.

The council then adjourned.
